

1938?

WHAT ABOUT 1938?

Very few people alive today are old enough to remember the bad old days of the thirties in the United States and in the world. And I doubt that many of us were taught what happened and why, whether referring to the worldwide Great Depression, or the lead-up to the Second World War, especially in Europe, where the Germans, Italians, and Russians were being subjected to socialist (or fascist) tyrannies.

That's unfortunate, since it is critically important that we learn from the mistakes and disasters of history so that we don't repeat them. (That is almost laughable at this time of erasing our own history to serve a political agenda!)

Following is a great commentary of warning by Wayne Allyn Root, who draws needed comparison between what happened under the German Nazis then, and what we see happening now.

It's a reality we must NOT ignore and about which we must decide how to respond, individually and as families, communities, and states.

THIS IS 1938: FIRST, THEY CAME FOR THE UNVACCINATED

Wayne Allyn Root 8/8/2021

This is the most important commentary I've ever written.

It's time for alarm bells. It's time for me to play the part of Paul Revere: "The communist tyrants and dictators are coming! The communist tyrants and dictators are coming!" They're coming first for unvaccinated Americans. . . .

. . . 1938 was not the Holocaust. It was the pre-Holocaust. It was the time before the nightmare, when the foundation was being laid to destroy the freedom, free speech, businesses and lives of millions of Jews.

Everything happening today to the American people . . . to the U.S. Constitution . . . to freedom . . . and particularly to unvaccinated Americans reminds me of 1938. This is only the beginning. It gets much worse from here.

First, "the papers." Vaccine mandates and vaccine passports are just like 1938, when the Gestapo demanded papers from every German.

Republicans asked for "papers" from migrants who had broken into our country. Criminals. Democrats said, "No, that's racism." Republicans asked for "papers" once every two years for federal elections, to prove you have a right to vote. Democrats said, "No, that's racism."

Now Democrats want American citizens, not illegal aliens, not criminals, but patriots born in this country, to produce papers 24/7. We'll need papers to enter restaurants, bars, nightclubs, concerts, casinos, conventions and hotels and to board a train, plane or bus. We'll need papers to enter a supermarket, or we'll starve to death. All for the crime of being unvaccinated against . . . wait for it . . .

The flu.

All for the crime of being unwilling to inject an untested, rushed to production, experimental, "for emergency use only" shot into our bodies.

What happened to the war cry of Democrats: "My body, my choice"? It only applies to murdering babies, but it doesn't apply to dangerous experimental shots that we don't want injected into our bodies.

Weren't Jews injected with experimental drugs by the depraved Nazi government? Wasn't that a key part of the Nuremberg trials? That no government could ever again inject experimental shots into the bodies of unwilling citizens? Isn't that a basic human right?

By the way, this isn't about vaccines.

If you want the vaccine, take it. I'd never stop you. I'd never limit your freedom, your choice. This is about vaccine mandates -- forcibly injecting Americans who don't want it. That's 1938.

But there's much more in common with 1938. Mask mandates. If you're scared, wear them. I'm not scared. I don't want to wear them. Mandates are about forcing individuals to lose their freedom, choice, individuality and human rights. That's 1938.

Lockdowns are a match with the Warsaw Ghetto. Jews were locked down. Jews couldn't work. Jews couldn't travel. Jewish businesses were labeled "nonessential."

If government can force us to close our businesses, to kill our jobs, to decide who is nonessential, then this is 1938.

Stars on clothing. It's coming. The vaccinated get into restaurants, bars, concerts, supermarkets, planes and trains. They keep their jobs. The rest of us are marked as "subhuman" for Media and social media as the public-relations wing of the government. That's called propaganda. Remind you of 1938? Back then, the Jews' books were burned. Today, it's those of conservatives, patriots and specifically the unvaccinated.

We are silenced. Our facts are labeled "misleading." Only the facts that agree with big government's agenda count. That's 1938.

Door-to-door intimidation and making lists of those who disagree with "govern-his district wear yellow "I am not vaccinated" badges. That reason is to separate society's wheat from society's chaff.

The wheat is the Democrats who crave Big Government and those passive citizens who will immediately fall in line. The chaff is the people who want to think for themselves and refused to be bullied into injecting experimental substances into their bodies.

And yes, it's true that Blacks and Latinos are the most likely people to refuse vaccines but their race gives them a pass from being relegated to chaff status. It's only onery, free-spirited, Second ment knows best." Trust me, that army of door-to-door vaccine brainwashers will soon be turned into a Gestapo of gun-grabbers. 1938 was the year Nazis banned Jews from owning guns. They took them door to door. That's 1938.

Only days ago, a former Department of Homeland Security official said the unvaccinated should be on the federal no-fly list. That's exactly how Nazis attacked the Jews and others who disagreed with their agenda. It was always lists. Lists of people to be disappeared in the middle of the night; lists of those to be sent to reeducation camps; lists of those to be sent to concentration camps; lists of enemies of the state. It's happening again. Maybe this time you'll only lose your job or free speech. This is, again, 1938.

It's all disgusting and disgraceful. But I'm warning you, this is just the start. It's all going downhill from here -- fast. This is the end of America. This is 1938.

Unless we stop it now. Unless we take a stand now. Unless we draw a line in the sand now.

First, they came for the unvaccinated. Trust me: Next, they're coming for you.

FROM ANDREA WIDBURG OF AMERICAN THINKER

The day after Wayne Root's article ran in Townhall.com, Andrea Widburg of American Thinker had similar thoughts in her article called "Did the CDC Director just kill the rationale for vaccine passports?" (AT, 8/8/2021). A couple of quotes from that article:

. . . there can be only one reason for the Democrats' fanatic effort to require people to have vaccine passports to function in the world. Indeed, one Illinois school superintendent went so far as to demand that the unvaccinated in Amendment supporting, independent White people who need to be identified. Oh, wait. Not just identified. They also need to start losing their rights, jobs, access to their money, food, etc.

. . . this whole vaccine press, in addition to being unconstitutional to my way of thinking, has no scientific basis at all. It can only be punitive, making "bad people" immediately identifiable, just as the Nazis did with the Jews and their yellow stars.

. . . Just as King Christian of Denmark allegedly donned a yellow star when the Nazis demanded that all Jews in the conquered kingdom do so, now is the time for all constitution-loving Americans to speak out. "The time is now," [Rabbi Michael Barclay] writes," for all people of faith, those dedicated to personal freedoms, and students of history to reject the application of demanding vaccine passports as business and governmental policy."

And here and now, I'm publishing that Plutonium Press cartoon:

Illinois District Superintendent To Issue Yellow ID Badges Based On Vaccination Status

REGAINING OUR WONDER AND AWE

By Ray Bentley.

"The heavens declare the glory of God..."
— Psalm 19:1

The heavens once were a magical canopy of fiery daylight, cooled at night by the glow of the moon. Twinkling lights spread their star stories across the universe.

When I was young, imagining myself as an astronomer or astronaut, I was endlessly intrigued by the mystery of God's lights and learned everything I could.

They spoke to me in the rhythms of creation, and I felt God's presence, especially after the night I first met Him at the age of eleven. I'd lie in the yard outside my home and listen to crickets and the wind in the trees. I would stare at the sky, marveling at the faraway lights signaling God's glory. I knew the fanciful legends of Orion, Cassiopeia, and the menagerie of lions, bulls, dogs, and rams.

Then I grew up.

The science of astronomy had a way of removing the awe and glory from God's work in the sky. The moon, sun, and stars were said to be gaseous balls of fire or dark, icy matter. They were the beautiful part of creation that ordered the days and nights and the seasons.

But I no longer heard their stories, and for me the heavenly bodies lost their mystery.

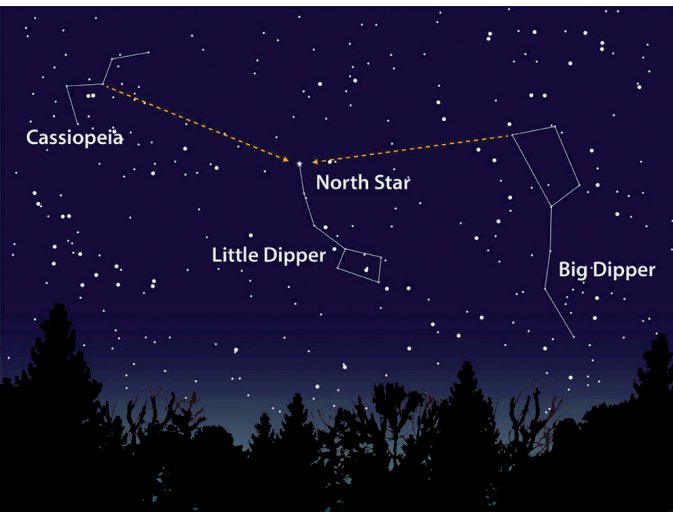

Until I matured as a believer and began to recognize God's handiwork in the heavens. As I studied Scripture, history, and the origins of the stories in the skies, I began to understand why God said, The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows His handiwork.

Day unto day utters speech, And night unto night reveals knowledge. There is no speech nor language Where their voice is not heard.

Their line has gone out through all the earth, And their words to the end of the world.

(Psalm 19:1-4)

When you need inspiration and confirmation that there is a God who has created us and loves us, look to the skies and soak in the beauty of His creation. Imagine generations of ancestors looking to the stars for navigation, evidence of God's work, and to connect with awesome beauty of His creation.

I have regained my earlier wonder and sense of awe at all that God has put in the heavens. The beauty is there for our enjoyment, but it so much greater than that!

The heavens exist to declare the glory of God!
