PATRIOTPOST.US: OBJECTIVE AND UNCENSORED ANALYSIS

I actually watched that return visit to Butler, Pennsylvania. The rally was great and actually emotional. I loved how Trump started his speech "As I was saying . . .", to carry on from where he left off just before being shot. And Elon Musk is a remarkable guy, great to have on the right team. I love how Musk and Trump have worked together to help the victims of hurricane Helene, whom FEMA has blocked from getting proper help.

PATRIOTPOST.US: OBJECTIVE AND UNCENSORED ANALYSIS

Looking at people, I often wonder if they even think about the sacrifices made by so many so that they (and we!) could enjoy the life we have here. But now we're being overrun with people who don't share our values and heritage, and much of education is teaching disdain or total lack of awareness of what our country has done for them. Sad!

Not one more penny better go to another country until our states look like this hurricane never happened.

PATRIOTPOST.US: OBJECTIVE AND UNCENSORED ANALYSIS

Not one more penny. . . and Are the hurricane victims . . . and FEMA funneling . . . Nothing is more outrageous (meaning filling us with rage!) than the way the leftists are handing money to illegals hand over fist, with nothing left for the taxpayer/citizens. It's happening big time here in good old California (not!) also. Our staffers struggle to pay their own way and use expensive private health insurance as illegals and others get Medi-Cal free, with better benefits.

Well, it works for our computers and other devices. My only question is, Where's the plug?

You know that moment when something feels off?

It is.

Trust your gut.

Yup. If you feel queasy at what you are witnessing, there's a reason.

This is sooo true! What would we do without these hardworking guys, and others like them in grunt jobs that have to be done?

I LITERALLY WROTE A BOOK TO WARN YOU GUYS ABOUT THIS.

We read 1984 in high school. It was not pleasant. I never for a moment imagined that I would see fulfillment of Orwell's prophecy in my lifetime. But here we are.

Doesn't that picture look like the Garden of Eden might have looked like? Of course the world would be a better place . . . if we were back in that Garden, in close companionship with our Maker and Creator, God!

What do you think God thinks as He watches all this? LG
